HOROSCOPE

APRIL 10 - APRIL 16, 2019

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

Don't neglect these problems; deal with them once and for all, then move on to more pleasurable tasks. Over spending or unexpected bills could set you back. Don't overspend to impress someone who interests you. If you go shopping, only take what you can afford to part with.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

Property investments will payoff. Your emotions are soaring and if you don't get your way, look out world. You may win favors if you present your ideas and include your family. You may be able to impart knowledge that's innovative to those searching for a new angle.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

Look into real estate. Romance is likely if you can bring yourself to go out with friends. You should channel your efforts into getting rid of bad habits. It is best not to upset the apple cart if you learn information that may damage a colleague's reputation.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

You should be able to make major career gains if you plan your intentions carefully. You can meet potential new mates, but make sure that they aren't already committed to someone else. Don't get involved in other people's problems. Don't divulge secret information.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Avoid getting trapped in internal disputes. Travel and communications will not run as smoothly as you had hoped. Ask others to help, or you may feel that a burden is weighing you down. Don't let your mate force you into making a decision that you aren't ready to make.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

You will have a childlike approach this week, big hearted and full of spunk. There are ways of making extra cash if you put your mind to it. Look into events that you might find interesting, and compromise by doing a few things that you both like to do. Unforeseen changes in your location are apparent.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

Your emotional state could leave you vulnerable and confused! You are likely to be left alone if you aren't willing to bend just a little. You can convince anyone of anything. Be discreet about your personal life or whereabouts. Be mysterious.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

Problems with relatives and friends could surface. Female colleagues may be able to help you get the job done. Consider making pleasure trips or participating in entertainment that will require energy. Consider applying for a job in another part of the world.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

You can develop your creative talents if you take the time to practice your art. Friends from your past may come back into your life. You can get into self awareness groups or look into physical enhancement programs. Your creative ability will surface, giving you good ideas for ways of making money.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22-Jan. 20)

Do the necessary chores and then do things that please you. Travel may be confusing. Go with the flow and don't be concerned about your own job. You will be able to enlist the help of colleagues who believe in your ideas.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

Financial gains can be made through wise investments. However, you should be concerned about what they want in return. Make changes regarding your friendships. Travel could be in order.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Your trendy style and unique way of doing things will entice new acquaintances. You need to take a break with the ones you love. Caustic language may cause you to want to get out of the house. You can help a close friend find solutions to personal problems.

CAPE MAY EVENTS

Exit Zero Jazz Fest Friday, Saturday & Sunday, April 12, 13 & 14

Exit Zero Jazz takes its cue from European festival models, which puts the City of Cape May center stage. Festival-goers stroll from club to club along the streets of Cape May soaking up the exhilarating sounds — proving that the magic of the festival is not so much who you know, but the discovery of bands and music performing on the concert stages and in the intimate clubs.

Cape May Convention Hall is Festival Central. Festival Box Office, Will Call Window, Festival Merchandise, Information, VIP Lounge, Program Guides and Shuttle to Schmidtchen Theater can all be found in or just outside Cape May Convention Hall. GPS address is: 714 Beach Avenue, Cape May, NJ 08204.

Schmidtchen Theater is the only venue not located on the island of Cape May. An easy ten minute drive from Convention Hall with plenty of parking, the Festival also provides shuttle service from Cape May Convention Hall to Schmidtchen Theater and back. Generally, shuttle service begins :75 minutes prior to Schmidtchen Theater concerts. Past Festival Headliners who have performed on the Schmidtchen Theater Stage include Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra, Wynton Marsalis Quintet, Pat Metheny & Ron Carter Duo, Gregory Porter, Dianne Reeves, Marcus Miller, Fourplay and many more. The 2019 Spring Headliner Chick Corea Trio with Christian McBride and Brian Blade perform on Saturday, April 13, 2019 at 8:00pm. GPS address Schmidtchen Theater: 687 Route #9, Cape May, NJ 08204

Some of the other acts performing in around Cape May include: Ron Artis and The Truth Saturday at The Rusty Nail and Sunday at Cabanas. Red Baraat Sat and Sun at Cabanas Jon Cleary Sat & Sun at Cabanas, plus many more nationally renowned acts. For a full schedule and for more information, visit ExitZeroJazzFest.com, or call the Convention Center at 609-884-9565.

3. Consumers Pick Top Vocalist for Road Trip Prep:
Springsteen Tunes Top Car Owners' List

Cars and music have always gone together, so it only makes sense that when you are preparing your vehicle for a road trip, you would listen to some tunes. According to a nationwide survey of more than 25,000 vehicle owners, Bruce Springsteen and Keith Urban were the preferred choice to listen to when getting ready to hit the road.

"With April being National Car Care Month, we thought it would be a fun idea to find out which musicians car owners like to listen to when getting ready for a road trip," said Rich White, executive director, Car Care Council. "It was no surprise that Bruce Springsteen, the guy who wrote 'Cadillac Ranch' and 'Pink Cadillac,' would be the top choice." The final results were as follows:

- Bruce Springsteen • 24.0%
- Keith Urban • 16.4%
- Bruno Mars • 16.1%
- Jimmy Buffett • 15.7%
- Lady Gaga • 11.5%
- Taylor Swift • 8.6%
- Beyonce • 7.7%

DUST MITES CAN MAKE PETS MISERABLE

Submitted By
Patsy Nelson
 from The Wagging Tail

*Correction to last week's article:
 Merrick bought by Purina
 Iams/Eukanuba were owned by Procter & Gamble - sold to Mars*

This week I decided to really attack the possibility of dust mites, especially in my bedroom where I have carpet, and where my pets spend most of their sleeping time. I must have done five loads of laundry! Then I went to The Wagging Tail and as I was getting my Zoey out of her car seat, one of my customers walked by with her just-groomed Shih Tzu. We chatted and she remarked about the very large hot spot on her dog's back. She said she thought it was from dust mites. I thought that was one of those unexplained coincidences, this one relating to dust mites. Humans can have the following symptoms related to dust mite allergies: sneezing, runny nose, itchy, red or watery eyes, nasal congestion, postnasal drip, cough, facial pressure and pain, swollen, and/or blue-colored skin under your eyes. In a child, frequent upward rubbing of the nose. In severe cases, asthma could result. I do suffer from the first six symptoms. I have not been tested, but I do take medication.

After meeting up with my customer's Shih Tzu, I decided to research how dust mites affect our pets. Dust mites are microscopic and resemble, to me, a cross between a tick and a beetle. According to an article called HEALTHY PETS, they are most commonly attracted to carpeting, bedding, mattresses, upholstery, and darkness. They are also fond of the moist, warm air we exhale during sleep. It sounds a bit disgusting, but it is a protein in their feces that causes our allergic reactions. Dust mites are a year-round problem, being more severe in the spring and fall.

This may be an aha moment, but one of the symptoms in pets, is recurring ear infections!! How many of our pets are plagued with that! Also, pets may be itchy, especially around face and feet, or have skin issues including inflammation and seborrhea. Animals can be tested via skin or serum. Felines with dust mite allergies may develop eosinophilic granuloma complex that results in skin lesions: itching; acne on the chin (which we see in some of the cats at our store even though we do not use any plastic dishes); recurrent ear inflammation or infections; and a disease of the foot pads called plasma cell pododermatitis, or "pillow foot."

Treatment will take some effort on your part, as in keep bedding, furniture and floors as dust free as possible. Just like with bed bugs, heat is your friend, so wash everything in hot water, or dry on a hot temperature setting. Or you can use cold water with tea tree oil added to it. The article suggests airing out your bedding or a really cold or really hot day for at least twelve hours and regular thorough vacuuming. It is best to have a vacuum with a HEPA filter. Steam clean carpets and upholstery. Use mattress covers that are micro-porous anti dust mite. Something I have recommended to customers is covering your pet's bed with a pillow case or sheet so that you only have to wash the cover, and that will prolong the use of the bedding. This article suggests that as well, but for cutting down on dust mite contamination, thus, a great idea for two reasons. Other recommendations according to the article include regular foot soaks and baths, proper diet, and supporting the immune system. We have a hemp based immune-strengthening-product I use on Daisy (Cushing's syndrome), but now will use on all my itchy dogs. Always provide fresh, good-quality drinking water, and avoid over-vaccinating/over-medicating to keep your pet's immune system healthy. (I am strongly of the opinion that usually rabies shots are sufficient for our house pets.) Getting an air purifier and switching to non-toxic cleaning products will help. I also give Daisy Milk Thistle drops (see my article on Milk Thistle) to clean toxins out of her system. Now I will give it to them all. "Keep in mind it only takes a miniscule amount of dust mite allergen to create an allergic response in your dog or cat. So the more effective your mite eradication efforts, the more comfortable your allergic pet will be."
