NJ LIC HEARING AID DISPENSERS --

JAMES L. SAAD, JR. LIC. #171; RICHARD J. SAAD, LIC. #324

HOROSCOPE

APRIL 24 - APRIL 30, 2019

ARIES (Mar. 21 - April 20)

Be careful that you don't spend too much time with a person belonging to someone else. Ask those in key positions to help you overcome the delays and to support your concerns in order to move on. You can't help everyone. You are best to look into investments that will grow in value over an extended period of time.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)

Take time to deal with the concerns of children. Pleasure trips will be emotionally favorable. You may have been trying to do too much, leaving yourself exhausted and open to colds and infections. You should sign up for creative courses. Concentrate on your work.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)

Don't rely on others to do your work. Don't be too quick to voice your opinion. Listen to others carefully. Home improvement projects will enhance your residence and bring the family closer together. This day was meant for love. Make creative changes to your residence.

CANCER (June 22 - July 22)

Take the time to sort out your personal papers and double-check your financial investments. Get involved in groups that will help you meet established individuals. Sit back and observe, regardless of how hard that might be. Offers of joint ventures are likely.

LEO (July 23 - Aug 22)

Just be yourself. Avoid any intimate involvement's with coworkers or employers. You should include children in your activities. Property deals look good.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 23)

Your practical approach to life may charm someone who has been observing you. Make plans to do something special with the one you love. You would be wise to consider attending lectures that will broaden your awareness concerning your professional direction. If you take on too much of a financial burden you may make yourself ill.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)

Obstacles may stand in your way where career and success are concerned. You should sit down with someone you trust and work out a budget that will enable you to save a little extra. Watch for empty promises that may give you false hope. Romance appears.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

Get involved in creative projects that will enhance your earning power. Your doubt could lead to insecurity. Limitation could set in if you've been spending too much. Travel will be favorable. Resist overspending on luxury items.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 21)

You will inspire confidence in others. Moves will be hectic but favorable in the end. You can make gains if you look at long-term investments. Don't count on others to cover up for your shortcomings.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22 - Jan. 20)

You might find that the extra cash will come in handy when an opportunity to invest comes along. Try not to make waves. Your partner may be somewhat irritable this week. You need to concentrate on solving existing problems.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)

You'll have problems with authority figures if you don't play by the rules. Go over their important documents and take the time to suggest alternatives. Do your own research and be prepared. You can have a working relationship with children if you exercise patience and understanding of the dilemmas they face.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar. 20)

Don't overspend on children or on large purchases. Don't overreact if your partner has a poor attitude. Go with the flow and don't be concerned about your own job. Take a look at your legal position.

APRIL 26TH - NOVEMBER 3RD

Carroll Gallery Exhibit "The Iconic Cape May Lighthouse: From the Pages of the First Resort": In the Carroll Gallery in the Carriage House at the Emlen Physick Estate, 1048 Washington St. Curator Ben Miller, author of "From the Pages of the First Resort," provides visitors with a unique look at the iconic Cape May Lighthouse. Illuminating darkness over the Atlantic Ocean and Delaware Bay for 160 years, Cape May's lighthouse is the third beacon to guide mariners through the tumultuous waters at the confluence of the ocean and bay. Memories and historic images abound, from the keepers who dedicated their lives to maintaining the light, the MAC preservationists who restored it, and all those who've relied upon it for over a century and a half. Admission is free. Friday, April 26 thru Sunday, November 3rd. Open daily; times vary. Presented by the Mid-Atlantic Center for the Arts & Humanities (MAC). For more information, call (609) 884-5404 or (800) 275-4278, or visit www.capemaymac.org.

JUST LOOK AT THE INGREDIENT PANEL

Submitted By
 Patsy Nelson
 from The Wagging Tail

Yesterday I found out that my friends, Michelle and Mark, now in their sixties, got an eight-week old Yorkshire Terrier puppy. It was both surprising and exciting. After he lost his diabetic dog, Bocci, Mark was truly devastated—he's a super sensitive guy—and swore that he could never go through that pain again. How many times have I heard that scenario through the years? Yes, the pain of losing one's beloved, loyal, "I'm there for you, in whatever shape or form" pet, is truly horrendous. To some it is like losing a child. But the joy that our pets give us every single day of their lives, to me, outweighs the time we have to say good-bye. Now they have "George."

Right after I dropped Zoey and Rosie off at home, I went to see the new pup. What was remarkable was that they had only gotten him yesterday and he was already, absolutely, their dog. He may have been wary of me because of all the smells of other pets on me, for it took me quite a while to gain his trust. He is really a handsome dude, with a beautiful coat and conformation. Michelle pointed out that he was trained to go in a litter box with pine pellets. Although, he did use the rug in the living room, he is still new to the house and a bit disoriented. I put him in his box after petting him for a half hour and thought he had peed. Michelle awarded him immediately with a Bil-Jac treat. I have never sold Bil-Jac because I remember not liking the ingredients.

It has never failed to amaze me how many questionable food companies make it nearly impossible to find an ingredient panel when you want one. I searched and searched on the web and was given quite a run around and just a tempting sample of what they call their most tasty and appealing ingredients in the product. Not the whole list. But when I looked on the bag of Bil-Jac treats being fed to George, the one ingredient that sent up a red flag to me was the preservative, BHA.

As I have written before, BHA and BHT are two awful preservatives that you never want to give to your pet. Especially BHA. The Department of Health and Human Services classifies BHA as reasonably linked to human as well as animal cancer. BHA and BHT are even found in many cereals, crackers, and granola bars. Inexcusable! Michelle said she had never looked at the ingredients. Most of us are too trusting and inadvertently can be doing harm to our pets and ourselves. When choosing treats or food for our pets you want to avoid not only BHA and BHT, but also, meat and poultry by-products, food dyes and artificial flavors, animal fat (from unknown sources), and all the preservatives I mentioned in my article "Don't Feed Milk Bones." If something looks questionable, it probably is, and when in doubt, GOOGLE.
