HOROSCOPE

MAY 8 - MAY 14, 2019

ARIES (Mar. 21- April 20)

Your intellectual charm will entice mates who have common interests. Don't let your emotional upset interfere with your professional objectives. Your outgoing, aggressive nature will attract someone you've been eager to meet. You may be emotional and quick to judge others.

TAURUS (Apr. 21- May 21)

If you can't get ahead in the company you're with, perhaps it's time to move on. Do something constructive outside. Your partner may blame you for everything. Try not to get into disputes that will lead to estrangement's.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

Concentrate on your job. Unique forms of entertainment could capture your attention and bring about a romantic interest. Do not let them blow situations out of proportion. Relationships have not been the best for you lately and it's left you somewhat gun shy.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Don't let your emotions interfere with completing your chores. You must take care not to over exert yourself if involved in sports. You're in the mood to party. Don't bother complaining, do the work yourself.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

You may find yourself caught in the middle of an argument that has nothing to do with you. Health problems may prevail if you don't take care of them immediately. You may have been trying to do too much, leaving yourself exhausted and open to colds and infections. Changes at home will be necessary.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 -Sept. 23)

Take care of your personal needs. Listen to the advice given by those with experience. Moves or the possibility of having someone different living with you may be difficult at first. Get involved in jobs that require creative input. You can win points with both peers and superiors.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 -Oct. 23)

If they want help that's great, but if they try to take credit for your work, you will have to set them straight. Strong willpower will come to your rescue. You should be promoting your ideas. Use your added discipline to get what you want.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

Be firm when dealing with matters pertaining to your environment. It's time to make professional changes. Sudden disruptions will cause upset and a change of routine in your home environment. You can expect to have problems with your mate if you've been spending too much time away from home.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 -Dec. 21)

You will gain knowledge through your adventure. Don't blame others for your own stubbornness. You should get into programs that will enhance your appearance and help you to be the best that you can. Your position may be in question if you haven't been pulling your weight.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22 - Jan. 20)

Don't spend more than is necessary on travel or friends. You should be making plans to spend some time with the ones you love. You can have quite the romantic ad venture if you take time to get to know your mate all over again. Your family may be feeling neglected and unloved.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 -Feb. 19)

You are best to keep your money tied up in a safe and secure place. Hidden matters are likely to surface. Let go of the past in order to progress. You must consider yourself for a change.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Do not borrow or lend money or belongings to friends or relatives if you wish to avoid any hassles. Try to make your lover understand that you need to do things with your friends. If your lover tries to curtail your freedom, it may lead to conflict. Don't divulge secret information.

NEW JERSEY PET SEAT BELT LAW IS BACK

Submitted By
Patsy Nelson
 from The Wagging Tail

In 2012, New Jersey made history when it became the first state in the country to require drivers to restrain their pets while traveling with them in their vehicles. Fines initially were ranging from $250 to $1000. Many responded that such a law was an encroachment on their individual rights. However, dogs that have not been buckled up have caused many deadly accidents. People have also lost their dogs in an accident due to the dog getting out of the car and getting killed by another car. And I will never forget that road rage incident where a woman's dog was grabbed out of her car and thrown into on-coming traffic by the assailant. If the dog had been properly secured that would not have happened. Also, your frightened dog could bite a first responder.

Pets can cause an accident by jumping onto a driver's lap, causing a distraction or obscuring a driver's vision. Cats and small dogs can get under the pedals. Pets can become projectiles when a car is in an accident or stops quite suddenly, causing harm to themselves and possibly you or the passengers. Depending on the size of the animal and the force of acceleration, results can be serious if not deadly. "Even in an accident going 30 miles per hour, a sixty-pound dog can cause an impact of something like 1200 pounds." We don't expect the accident, as I did not in February of 2018, when a woman stopped suddenly on route 9 near the dance studio, just as I glanced at an officer standing by the entrance of Myrtle Ave. Instead of checking to see how fast I was approaching, she just stopped. I went into her back-end at 40 miles an hour. My dogs were not in the car. I restrain them, but if I had not, they would have been killed.

When left loose in a car, dogs can possibly disable the parking gear and cause the car to move and cause damage to other vehicles or to pedestrians. Dogs in the back of a pickup who are not properly restrained can be severely injured or killed by falling out of the truck or crashing against the cab if the driver stops quickly. Presently there are about twenty states that have tether laws for pickups. A few states have gotten stricter about dogs sitting on a driver's lap or sitting in the front seat (according to my research, about 30,000 accidents a year are caused by dogs being in the front seat.) Pets in the front seat can also be killed by the deployment of airbags. There is also legislation about dogs hanging their heads out windows. The only state, however, which has instituted a law that is humane to animals and safe for drivers, is New Jersey.

The New Jersey Society for the Prevention of Animal Cruelty states "that a driver can be cited for EACH animal that is not properly restrained. If you have four dogs running loose in your car and are stopped, it can quickly become an expensive trip." Drivers in Southern New Jersey can be cited for cruelty to animals if your pets are not buckled up or in crates. It is in your best interest and your pets' to just follow the law and protect your pets at the same time. (The Wagging Tail has a variety of affordable restraints.) I suggest to customers who do not have their pets secured, but have them in a harness, that they can take the leash snapped to the harness and wrap it around the head rest.

Most authorities, government officials, and members of animal rights groups have differing feelings about legislation and the difficulty, too, of enforcement. The hope is that people will be better educated to properly protect themselves and their pets.
