HOROSCOPE

NOVEMBER 7 - 13, 2024

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

This week, your focus is on your career and long-term ambitions. You might feel a surge of energy and a drive to take charge of your professional life. It's a great time to make bold decisions, but try not to rush through them. Consider the bigger picture and potential long-term effects.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

This week encourages personal growth and the expansion of your horizons. Whether through travel, learning, or embracing new perspectives, you're ready to explore new territory. Take this time to invest in your education, skills, or spiritual development. However, don't overextend yourself—balance is key.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

This is a week of emotional depth and financial reflection. You might feel a strong pull to address deeper issues that you've been avoiding. Confronting hidden fears or unresolved emotions could lead to much-needed healing. Financially, shared resources or investments may require your attention, so approach these matters carefully.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Your relationships, whether romantic, familial, or professional, are in the spotlight this week. It's a great time to engage in honest conversations and resolve any misunderstandings. You may find that clearing the air with a partner or friend helps strengthen your bond.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

This week, your focus is on health, daily routines, and personal well-being. You may feel the urge to organize or streamline your work and home life, making things more efficient. It's an excellent time to reassess your habits and implement small changes that can improve your health, whether that's adjusting your diet, starting a new exercise routine, or simply making time for self-care.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

Creativity and self-expression are the main themes this week. You might feel a burst of inspiration that encourages you to dive into a project or explore a new hobby. Whether it's artistic, entrepreneurial, or romantic, indulge in the activities that bring you joy and allow you to express your individuality.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

This week, your focus is on home and family matters. You might feel the urge to make changes in your living environment, whether it's redecorating, reorganizing, or considering a move. A deeper connection with family members or loved ones could also emerge, as you may feel more attuned to their needs.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

This is a week for communication and learning. You may find yourself in many discussions—whether with friends, colleagues, or loved ones. Your ability to articulate your thoughts will be heightened, so make sure to express your ideas clearly. It's also a great week to pick up a new skill, attend a workshop, or explore something that stimulates your mind.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

This week, financial matters and personal values are in the spotlight. You may find yourself reevaluating your budget, setting new financial goals, or reassessing how you use your resources. This is a good time to take a more practical approach to your finances.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.-Jan. 20)

Personal growth and transformation are the themes for you this week. You may feel a sense of renewal or the urge to reinvent yourself in some way. Whether that's changing your approach to a personal goal or letting go of old habits, this is a time of deep evolution.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

This week, focus on introspection and healing. You may feel the need to retreat and reflect on past experiences or emotional issues that need resolution. Take time to heal and prioritize your mental and emotional well-being. Your intuition will be strong, and you may find that journaling or meditation helps bring clarity.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Your social life and connections with others take center stage this week. It's a great time to expand your network, whether through work, social events, or online communities. If you've been feeling disconnected, this is an excellent time to reconnect with old friends or make new ones.

Veterans Day Ceremony
Monday, November 11 11 am
Soldiers & Sailors Park
Gurney St. & Columbia Ave

NATIONAL FORGET-ME-NOT DAY
National Forget-Me-Not Day on November 10th reminds Americans of the sacrifices returning soldiers have made of body, blood, and limb. Created in 1921, the day reminds Americans that National Forget-Me-Not Day originally raised funds for services for returning injured soldiers. At the time, the existing hospitals were insufficient to support the numbers of returning disabled veterans.

NATIONAL SUNDAE DAY
On November 11th, National Sun-

dae Day brings a celebration to ice cream lovers across the country. Enjoy one of every flavor and bring a friend! An ice cream sundae typically consists of one or two scoops of ice cream topped with syrup or sauce. The sundae is often topped with whipped cream, maraschino cherry, sprinkles, pineapple or a variety of other toppings. Make yourself a sundae or go out with friends and order one.

VETERANS DAY
Veterans Day on November 11th honors military veterans who served in the United States Armed Forces. The federal holiday coincides with Armistice Day and Remembrance Day, which marks World War I. These observances reflect the end of significant hostilities at the 11th hour on the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918 when the Armistice with Germany took effect. Initially, the United States observed Armistice Day as well. However, it evolved into the current Veterans Day in 1954. Veterans Day celebrates all United States military veterans. However, Memorial Day is set aside for remembering the men and women who died while serving.

Tommy Cono – Lighting Up the South Jersey Music Scene

Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Frankie Avalon – some of the great voices of the past. Let’s add Tommy Cono to that list as one of the great voices of the present. During the recent 50s, 60s, and 70s weekend presented by the Greater Wildwood Chamber of Commerce, I was fortunate enough to check out the concert featuring The Lettermen, The Shirelles, and Frankie Avalon. The emcee of the show and show opener was Tommy Cono aka “The Voice of Tribute”, who you may have seen performing around the Wildwoods. His performance and comedic talent kept the audience entertained. Whereas all the performers were fantastic, a highlight of the show for me was the duet featuring Tommy and Frankie Avalon. They closed the show with a super rendition of “Old Time Rock and Roll”. Tommy and Frankie aren’t new to performing together, however, as they recently made 2 videos together: “Beauty School Dropout”, and “Beach Blanket Bingo”, both of which are available on all video platforms; Apple Music, Spotify, You Tube, etc., and you can also check them out on Tommy’s website: thevoiceoftribute.com. You can also find a schedule of Tommy’s upcoming shows on the website.

Tommy Cono’s commitment to his love of music and performing began as a young boy in Hoboken, NJ, none other than the birthplace of Frank Sinatra. The product of a family of entertainers and musicians, Tommy Cono has honed his craft and developed a diversity within his singing styles which he pays homage to some of our greatest musical legends. Be sure to catch a performance of this up and coming musical talent for a performance you won’t soon forget!

Don't Let Your Thanksgiving Road Trip be a Turkey

Quick Five-Step Driveway Check Helps Ensure Stress-Free Holiday Road Trip

One way to avoid a turkey of a Thanksgiving road trip is to make sure the vehicle you will be driving is running well. A 10-minute pre-trip check is a quick and easy way to help avoid the inconvenience of a breakdown many miles away from home, says the non-profit Car Care Council.

The Car Care Council suggests the following pre-trip check to help ensure safety and reliability on the road:

Check all fluids, including engine oil, power steering, brake, and transmission; as well as windshield washer solvent and anti-freeze/coolant.

Check the hoses and belts that can become loose, cracked, brittle, frayed or showing signs of excessive wear. These are critical to the proper functioning of the electrical system, air conditioning, power steering and the cooling system.

Check the tires, including tire pressure and tread. Uneven wear indicates a need for wheel alignment. Tires should also be checked for bulges and bald spots.

Check lighting to identify any problems with exterior and interior lighting as the chance of an accident increases if you can't see or be seen.

Check wipers. Wiper blades should be replaced every six months. Make sure the windshield wipers are working properly and keep the reservoir filled with solvent.

"A pre-trip vehicle check provides peace of mind," said Nathan Perrine, executive director, Car Care Council. "Taking proper precautions provides an opportunity to have any repairs performed by one's own trusted technician before hitting the road, reducing the chance of costly car trouble away from home."

To save on fuel costs during the trip, the Car Care Council suggests that motorists avoid aggressive driving, observe the speed limit, and avoid excessive idling. Gas caps that are damaged, loose, or missing should be replaced to prevent gas from spilling or evaporating. The council also recommends that car owners restock their roadside emergency kit.

YOU LOVE YOUR DOG SO PROTECT YOUR DOG WHEN TRAVELLING

Submitted By

I was going to write about something else today, but a customer's appreciation inspired me to AGAIN coax pet owners to better restrain their pets when travelling in a car or other motor vehicle. It is so easy and requires very little investment to ensure your beloved pet's safety.

The customer could not thank me enough for the common sense advice that I gave in my article that she read in the Jersey Cape Magazine. This magazine is very generous in the amount they charge me to show my ad and in the generous space they give me to advise pet parents to better care for their pets. Some customers still do not realize that I write an article every week, or if time does not permit due to my working-at-the-store schedule, I will reprint a former article like this one, especially if it may have been of a serious nature. One such article was on the dangers of sand impaction whereby a pet ingests too much sand while playing on the beach. Articles can be found on our face book page.

The article about which the customer referred was an easy way to secure a pet in a car. I often follow my customers outside (stalking?) if they are walking their dog back to their car, and especially if they have the leash attached to a collar and not a harness. One such dog was on the floor of the passenger seat. "How do you keep your dog safe while you are driving?" I usually ask. She may have said he would be okay, or she was only going a short distance, or any number of excuses for not having him attached and secure. He was wearing a harness, so I opened the passenger door (presumptuous) and took his leash, looped it around the headrest, got him up on the seat beside her, and hooked the leash to the harness. "This way" I said, "he won't be thrown into the dashboard if you have to suddenly stop." I told her that if she had an extra leash, she could leave it permanently around the head rest and then just hook him to his harness each time she took him in the car. I have seen customers attaching to the collar and that is beyond scary. NEVER DO THAT. That is a sure way to permanently injure your dog's trachea, esophagus, and/or neck., if not kill your pet that you love so much.

Imagine driving 60 mph on Route 55 when suddenly a deer runs in front of your car. There is no way to avoid impact. You are wearing a seat belt, and so is your husband and your grandchild. What about your dog? Having read my article, the dog was secured by his harness and even though all the air bags were deployed, the dog was not injured. All survived without much harm, except for the car and the poor hapless deer. Even now I get goose bumps hearing her awful experience and her gratitude for my article's message saving the life of her dog. In retrospect, because the dog was well-secured, he did not become a projectile which could have fatally injured someone in the car.

We also carry seat belt attachments for easy buckling from harness to seat belt lock. And CBD treats that work (I use them on Ebby) and CBD oil for easing a pet's anxieties.

Thanks for helping to keep a small business in business and for choosing us as the best pet store 2022/2023/2024. We have adorable kittens up for adoption or just petting. Please see Mo and Curly on our face book page. They are two lovable brothers whose human parents had to give them back to us after four years because of their own health decline. They want so much to have a real home again.

GOD blessed America.
