HOROSCOPE

JANUARY 23 - JANUARY 29, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21- April 20)
A sudden spark of inspiration could lead to exciting opportunities this week. Be mindful of impulsive decisions, especially in your relationships. Focus on collaboration to maximize your success.

TAURUS (Apr. 21- May 21)
You'll find comfort in routine, but a small disruption may pave the way for growth. Take time to reassess your priorities and invest in self-care. Financial matters may require extra attention.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)
Communication is your superpower this week, so use it to mend fences and foster connections. A creative project or new idea could take flight if you trust your instincts. Balance your social and personal time to avoid burnout.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)
Your home life will demand attention, but the effort will bring lasting harmony. A financial or career breakthrough may be just around the corner—stay focused and persistent. Trust your intuition in navigating emotional situations.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)
A lively week awaits as your charisma draws people to you. Opportunities for travel or learning could broaden your horizons. Don't let pride stand in the way of asking for help when needed.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 -Sept. 23)
You may feel the urge to declutter and organize your life, both physically and emotionally. Be cautious with your spending, as unexpected expenses might arise. This week is ideal for nurturing your well-being and grounding yourself.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 -Oct. 23)
Relationships are at the forefront, with chances to deepen bonds or resolve conflicts. A creative partnership or group endeavor could prove rewarding. Focus on finding balance and harmony in all interactions.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Your determination to meet your goals will be unshakable, but don't overwork yourself. An unexpected opportunity could arise in your career—stay open and adaptable. Use your natural intensity to foster meaningful connections.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 -Dec. 21)
Adventure and optimism will guide you as you explore new ideas or ventures. A social event or reunion may bring joy and unexpected opportunities. Stay mindful of your energy levels to maintain momentum.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)
This week is ideal for tackling long-term plans with discipline and focus. A personal revelation might inspire changes in your relationships or lifestyle. Take time to appreciate small victories and rest when needed.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 -Feb. 19)
Your innovative ideas could inspire others and open doors for collaboration. Social connections may bring unexpected surprises or insights. Balance your forward-thinking nature with a practical approach to achieve your goals.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)
Your intuition will guide you through a week of emotional depth and creativity. Reflect on your dreams and use them as a source of inspiration. Avoid overextending yourself; prioritize rest and self-care.

In this workshop you'll discover: the importance of protecting your most valuable assets, explore your values and how they affect how you spend and save, and gain perspective on saving for retirement.

Beer Can Appreciation Day recognizes the great day in 1935 when beer was first sold in cans. This day provides people with the opportunity to enjoy and appreciate the many different kinds of beer cans. Around the world, collectors seek rare, novel, and unique varieties. A collector may have hundreds of beer cans in many different sizes, types, and ages.

CHEF CHIP'S WILD GAME AND SEAFOOD RECIPE

MARYLAND STYLE CRAYFISH CAKES

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 lb Fresh Crayfish (Cooked, Peeled & Deveined)
- 1/4 cup Mayonnaise
- 2 oz Boursin Cheese
- 1 Tbsp Dijon Mustard
- 2 Large Eggs
- 1/4 tsp Worcestershire Sauce
- 1 Tbsp Old Bay Seasoning
- 1 tsp Celery Seeds
- 1 Tbsp Fresh Chopped Chives
- Fresh Cracked Black Pepper to Taste
- 1/4 - 1/2 cup Bread Crumbs
- Oil for Pan Frying

PREPARATION:

Whisk all ingredients except crayfish and bread crumbs together. Roughchop half the crayfish. Fine chop the other half. Fold into bowl mixture with bread crumbs. Refrigerate for 2 hours. Place a sheet of parchment paper in a sheetpan. Use a 2 - 4 oz scoop to measure out cakes onto sheet pan. Shape into cakes by hand. In a saute pan, sear cakes gently on each side in hot oil. Place cakes on parchment. Bake in a preheated 350° oven until cooked through. Serve with a nice remoulade or tartar sauce. Enjoy!

SPORTS STUMPERS

Heisman Trophy Winners

By Alex Hendry

Questions:

- 1) Travis Hunter took home the 2024 Heisman Trophy, but he wasn't the first Colorado Buffaloes player to do so. Who was the first?
- 2) While Travis Hunter played impressively on both offense and defense this season, who was the first pure defensive player to have won the Heisman?
- 3) Which multi-sport professional athlete won the Heisman Trophy in 1985?
- 4) Who holds the distinct record of being a Heisman Trophy winner and being the all-time winningest head coach at two separate SEC schools?
- 5) Dillon Gabriel came close to winning the Heisman this season, but only one Oregon Ducks quarterback has done so. Who is he?
- 6) Viewed as an undersized quarterback in his era, which Heisman winner went on to have a successful on-field career in the USFL, CFL and NFL?

- 7) Who is the only player in college football history to have received the Heisman Trophy in consecutive seasons?
- 8) Which Heisman Trophy winner was formally stripped of his award only to have it reinstated on April 24, 2024?
- 9) The Florida State Seminoles have had three quarterbacks win the Heisman. Charlie Ward was the first and Jameis Winston was the third — who is the middle quarterback in this trio?
- 10) Name the two-time Super Bowl-winning quarterback who won the Heisman Trophy then served in the U.S Navy prior to his NFL career.

- Answers:
- 1) Rashawn Salaam (1994)
  - 2) Charles Woodson (1997)
  - 3) Bo Jackson
  - 4) Steve Spurrier (1966)
  - 5) Marcus Mariota (2014)
  - 6) Doug Flutie (1984)
  - 7) Archie Griffin (1974 and 1975)
  - 8) Reggie Bush (2005)
  - 9) Chris Weinke (2000)
  - 10) Roger Staubach (1963)

Drive With Confidence In Inclement Weather

Winter maintenance and inspection is crucial for safety," said Tony Molla, automotive repair expert with more than 40 years of experience. "I always recommend having a professional technician do a routine inspection and safety check of your vehicle before leaving town in the winter. "A trained eye can see things that may be problems on the road. And you don't want to get stranded away from home in wintery weather." Some of the items on Molla's list of recommendations:

1. Battery and charging system. Is your battery still at full charge? Cold temperatures demand more power to start your car, and winter conditions can accelerate the decline of a weakening battery. Now that we are a few months into winter, make sure your charging system and battery are functioning properly. Icy buildup or corrosion on terminals can affect power and charging.
2. Winter wiper blade replacement. Perhaps you already replaced wiper blades last summer, but heat and sunlight can reduce their effectiveness in winter. Do they chatter, scrape or leave streaks? Prepare for the next storm by replacing front blades and the back blade on your SUV. Consider using winter blades designed for cold weather.
3. Tire gripping ability. According to Consumer Reports, tires lose their ability to grip in wintery conditions long before they appear worn out. Its tire tests showed decline in performance with half the tread still available, even for winter and all-weather tires designed for snowy conditions. Ask your service advisor to check tread depth if they are going to handle your next winter road trip.
4. Wheel alignment for steering. The freeze-thaw cycle of winter creates potholes and road cracks. Both can knock your vehicle alignment out of whack—a condition that damages tires and affects steering. If you haven't had one in a while, get an alignment check before leaving town.
5. Headlight beam alignment. Make sure your headlight beams are aimed in the right direction. Traveling over rough roads and deterioration of mounting components can cause the beams to skew and make seeing the road more difficult. The problem can reduce the amount of light on road surfaces and cause glare for other drivers.
6. Wiper fluid tank. Fill up with high-quality windshield wiper fluids. You can quickly go through a lot of windshield wiper fluid in a single snowstorm. Make sure your vehicle's reservoir is full of high-quality "winter" fluid with de-icer.
7. Heating system review. Do the vehicle defroster, front and rear, operate efficiently? Check before going to wintery zones. Also, if your vehicle has been parked outside during storms, clear away debris and ice from vents to improve performance. Coolant life expectancy varies by driving conditions. Does your vehicle system need a routine flush and fluid replacement? Ask your advisor to check fluid level and condition to help prevent climate control problems.
8. Back-up camera and external sensors. Modern vehicles rely heavily on proper functioning of a myriad of high technologies and external sensors are particularly susceptible. Don't wait until you receive a sensor warning light. Use a microfiber or terrycloth towel and quick detailing spray to remove road grime, slush and snow.
9. Tire Pressure. Cold temperatures cause tire pressure to drop, causing a 1-2 PSI change for every 10°F shift. Properly inflated tires are crucial for maintaining control and stability on winter roads. Regularly check and adjust tire pressure as needed.
10. Spare Tire. While most focus on the four main tires, the spare tire should not be overlooked. Ensure that it is in good condition, properly inflated and has adequate tread. A well-maintained spare can be a lifesaver in emergency situations.

WET FOOD BETTER THAN DRY FOOD FOR YOUR CAT OR DOG?

According to the Whole Dog Journal (which is an expert source for all things dog) wet, raw or dehydrated food, is far better than any dry food, even the most expensive.

Many vets will push dry food as a way of maintaining good dental health but how many dogs or cats (or humans for that matter), truly spend more than a few seconds masticating their food? Most pets usually inhale their food. Slow feeders have been invented for that reason although the Fromm Company recommends adding cold water to your dog's dry food - as much as the dog can accept - to allow the food to move quickly through the gut for better gut health. Imagine yourself eating a beer pretzel without a beverage! Adding water is not possible if a dog grazes all day as you do not want the kibble to soften which will increase how slowly it makes its way through the intestinal tract. But there may be a reason your dog grazes... boredom with the food.

Many customers have been hesitant to change their dog's diet. I've had much success with dogs that have been found lost, like my Shih Tzu, Rosie, or given up, like Zoey, or foster-turned-rescue, Ebby. If your dog or cat gets lost and then found by someone else, even for a short time, it will be fed whatever that person chooses. Too many pets don't carry identification, and no pet carries medical or feeding instructions. It's truly healthier and more appealing to a cat or dog to alter or mix the proteins that they are given as long as you know that they do not have an allergy problem with a specific protein, like chicken or beef, which have been targeted for that. I am amazed how many of our reputable pet food companies carry canned foods that contain chicken or beef, which leads me to believe that a majority of pets don't have problems with either. Today there are numerous other protein options that pets have not consumed that can be safely added. Kangaroo, goat, guinea fowl, venison, pork, rabbit, fish, among others, can be slowly introduced, although I never slowly introduced anything. I am always trying something new on my cats and dogs and then monitor their stool, or amount of licking or scratching for indications of a problem. Feeding the same protein all the time can result in an allergy to that protein. Adding canned food, or freeze-dried food, can greatly enhance your pet's interest in eating and overall physical health.

Unless your pet eats all of its food at feeding time, it is best not to mix wet and dry food together. I know that Ebby will eat just about anything I give to her. But Zoey is a bit more hesitant. When I add a new can to their nightly meal, I put some in a separate bowl for both so that if they do not take to it, I have not ruined the main dish of gently cooked raw food sprinkled with Dr. Marty's small breed freeze-dried food. Last night Zoey would not touch Evanger's chicken thighs which Ebby gobbled up, despite Zoey having eaten it in the past. I have stopped feeding kibble, although for many who have bigger dogs, the kibble is more affordable, but still better with some canned food and cold water. Don't use warm water as it softens the kibble. As mentioned above, the Fromm Family Foods recommends that your dog should literally drink down its food, the quicker the better, for optimum gut health.
