TAURUS (Apr. 21- May 21)

You might feel a pull towards exploring new ideas or adventures this week, Taurus. Embrace opportunities to learn or travel, as they will expand your horizons in meaningful ways. However, be cautious of overindulging, especially in finances or habits.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

The third week of November encourages deep reflection on shared resources and intimacy. You may need to resolve financial or emotional matters that have been lingering. Trust your intuition to guide you toward healing and renewal in your relationships.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Partnerships take center stage this week, Cancer. Whether it's love or work, collaboration will be key to achieving your goals. Stay open to compromise, but don't lose sight of your own needs and boundaries in the process.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Your energy is best spent on daily routines and self-care this week, Leo. Pay attention to your health and well-being, making small but impactful changes to improve your lifestyle. Don't let stress pile up—take time to recharge when needed.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 -Sept. 23)

Creative pursuits are highlighted this week, Virgo, making it an excellent time to express yourself through art, hobbies, or even romance. Your heart feels more open, and connections with others can deepen. Trust your instincts and take a few risks—your creativity is your greatest asset now.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 -Oct. 23)

Your focus shifts to home and family matters this week, Libra. Whether it's redecorating, spending quality time with loved ones, or addressing emotional needs, this is a good time for nurturing your domestic life. Balance your professional and personal worlds carefully.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

Your mind is sharp this week, Scorpio, making it a good time for communication and learning. You might have important conversations that help clarify your direction or resolve lingering issues. Stay open-minded and ready to adapt as new information comes to light.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 -Dec. 21)

This week is favorable for managing your finances, Sagittarius. Focus on budgeting and reassessing your resources to ensure long-term stability. It's also a great time to consider your values and how they align with your goals.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)

Capricorn, this week focuses on partnerships—both personal and professional. You may find yourself reevaluating key relationships, whether they're romantic or business-related. Open and honest communication will help you find a balance and create stronger, more harmonious connections.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 -Feb. 19)

The week may bring a quiet period for you, Aquarius, as you focus on inner reflection and spiritual growth. Take some time to disconnect from the hustle and reconnect with your own sense of peace. Meditation or journaling can help you process deeper emotions and find clarity.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Your social life takes center stage this week, Pisces. You may find yourself connecting with like-minded individuals or groups who share your passions and ideals. It's a good time to network, collaborate, or simply enjoy the company of friends and allies.

Pre-Winter Checklist for Safe Holiday Driving

Here is a pre-winter checklist of car care for safe and reliable holiday driving:

1. Check tire condition and tread wear. Those first cold days of autumn can deflate tires. Look for tread worn or uneven wear.
2. Replace conventional rubber wiper blades and the rear blade on SUVs with a set designed to withstand inclement weather. Consider winter blades that contain rubber compounds to remain flexible in extreme weather. For rainy regions look for blades that have silicon compounds that resist cracking, remain pliable and form to your windshield contour.
3. Ask your service advisor if your vehicle may need a pre-winter decarbonization service. The frequency is determined by driving conditions, fuel quality, mileage, and engine design. Note: Make sure getting a decarbonization service does not affect your vehicle warranty.
4. Check all headlight and taillights to make sure they are operating properly and have a bright glow. Traditional bulbs lose their brightness and LED lights may stop working.
5. The all-important "walk around." Ask your service advisor to take a look at your vehicle with you to point out areas of concern.
6. Replace the cabin air filter. Summer dust and pollen can clog filters. Food odors, smoke and sweaty gym clothes can turn cabin air foul.
7. Check climate control system performance. Does the system heat up slowly or circulate poorly? Autumn leaves can clog vents and leaks, or low fluid levels can prevent the system from working properly.
8. Refill the windshield wiper fluid tank. Cleaning windows throughout summer may have left your wiper fluid tank nearly empty. Ask about fluids designed for freezing climates and rain repellent additives for wet climates. Note: Winter grades may contain chemicals that have use restrictions.
9. Investigate grinding and squeaking noises. Hot summer driving accelerates wear on brake pads and grinding or squealing noises are two signs they probably need replacement.
10. Get a battery charge test before leaving town to avoid sudden failure. A weak battery can go dead literally overnight in cold weather.
11. Watch for vehicle vibrations when the car is idling. The problem may be caused by motor mounts. They are made from rubber compounds and deteriorate like any other rubber-based product. The problem worsens over time and may cause other vehicle issues such as loose hoses, torn belts, and abnormal tire wear.
12. Listen for screeching sounds underneath the hood. The engine belts are worn and need replacement before causing extensive engine damage. Belts may look adequate and require a trained eye to spot problems.
13. Inspect engine hoses that may be leaky or worn from hot summer driving. Ozone causes rubber hoses to lose their pliability and eventually become hardened. Some acids in radiator fluid can eat away radiator hoses from the inside.

ROYAL CANIN INFERIOR DOG FOOD 30 POUND BAG ON CHEWY $109.⁹⁹
FROMM FAMILY SUPERIOR FOOD 30 POUND BAG UNDER $55

Everyone can save money in these inflationary times while feeding quality food to our cats and dogs. The most important thing you can do as your pet's protector is CHECK OUT THE INGREDIENT PANEL ON THE BACK OF THE BAG. Don't believe the advertising or hype of commercial foods like Purina, Royal Canin, or others who write poetically about their food and advertise using your money, while giving you a crappy product. Too many of our customers, when asked what they are feeding their new puppy or adopted dog, are shocked when I pull up the list of ingredients on the internet. They are guilty of blindly believing the false advertisements and the vets who push these brands. Compare the information that follows. My motto is NO SOY NO WHEAT NO CORN NO BY-PRODUCT, among others. I chose the Royal Canin Golden Retriever formula to illustrate why I would not recommend it and the price for what is in the bag is reprehensible. (The first ingredient listed usually represents what is considered quantitatively the major amount in the bag. The exception is when a protein like chicken is listed but not followed by chicken meal because they are falsely counting ALL the parts of the chicken that are not actually being used.) Brown rice, chicken by-product meal, oat groats, brewers rice, wheat, corn gluten meal, chicken fat, natural flavors (why don't they list them?) followed by assorted other items. They also add sodiumsilicoaluminate an anti-caking agent, an inorganic mineral made up of aluminum, silicone, and oxygen, which the FDA considers generally safe for direct contact with food, yet it can be a local irritant to the skin, eyes, and mucous membranes. Another one is fructodigosaccharides, a sweetener alternative, which can potentially cause digestive upset and abdominal stress. I chose Fromm Family's Gold Adult which would be suitable for a sixty-pound golden. The large breed bag would be similarly priced. I have visited their plant in Wisconsin, and it is impeccably sanitary, and they recently built their own canning plant.

Chicken, chicken meal, chicken broth, oatmeal, pearled barley, brown rice, chicken fat, menhaden fish meal, dried tomato pomace, yeast, cheese, flaxseed, duck, lamb, sweet potatoes, celery, alfalfa meal, vitamins and minerals, and no questionable agents or preservative. Which is not just better food but half the price? All our foods are 100% guaranteed-that your pet will love it and do well on it or we take it back. Plus, there are rewards towards a free bag. We also have samples of all Fromm Foods as well as others.

Thank you again for choosing The Wagging Tail as Best of The Jersey Shore, three years in a row. And thank you for supporting a local small business. Come see our kittens and cats!
